

TORONTO.

The Toronto letter carriers will go back to work this morning, the Government having made several concessions.

Sir Edmund Walker was the guest of honor at a banquet on the occasion of his jubilee as a banker.

Marion Cole, three years old, of Paris, Ont., was drowned at the Eastern Gap.

A dog caused an I. M. B. automobile to overturn, and four munition workers were injured.

An airplane crashed into the telegraph wires at Leaside, interrupting the service. The pilot was unhurt.

General Hoare is making a report on flying accidents to aviators.

THE DOMINION.

The postmen's strike is called off.

Hamilton is to introduce P-A-Y-E cars on August 5th.

Prince Arthur of Connaught arrived at Victoria on his way home from Japan.

The Seamen's Union of the Great Lakes will call a general strike on Sunday at midnight.

Three thousand six hundred and thirty-five Canadian troops are reported arrived safely in England.

Several of the Canadian Ministers who have been overseas arrived at an Atlantic port and proceeded westward.

Fruitgrowers in the Brantford district are clamoring for more help; the Government Bureau placed yesterday 25 girls, 19 men and 7 boys.

The Concretia, the first genuinely concrete ship constructed in America, made her maiden trip from Montreal to Brockville, which proved very successful.

The McAdoo schedule is expected to be in force in Canada on August 1, and the new freight rate increases, it is expected, will be made effective at the same date.

A Brantford married woman, Mary Danby, 27 years of age, was arrested on a charge of sending explosives through the mail, being implicated by Joe Zelen-sky, an Austrian, who was sentenced at Point Edward to three months in jail for receiving gunpowder through the mails.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Twenty enemy aliens were taken from New York yesterday to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for internment during the period of the war.

The American Red Cross has given 500,000 francs to assist in fighting the epidemic of Spanish influenza in Switzerland.

Count von Luxburg, former German Minister to Argentina, has arrived at Gothenburg and will proceed at once to Germany.