Owing to influenza amongst the students, Mrs. Vincent Massey and Miss Skinner have had to postpone the tea which was to have been held at the Women Students' Union, South Hall, Victoria College.

Mrs. Fotheringham, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. David MacLaren, in Ottawa, will return to town this week, and Miss Helen Fotheringham, who has been giving volunteer service at Dr. Grenfell's station at Battle Harbor for three months, is coming back with her aunt, Florence Macgillivray, who also spent the summer on the Labrador.

No fear of influenza could keep anyone who was at all able to go, from Massey Hall last night, when Ysaye came once more before an enthusiastic Toronto audience. There were some empty seats, of course, holders having been compelled to release them because the old la grippe had them in its clutches, but the audience was a representative one. Lady Hearst, wife of the Premier of Ontario, and Miss Hearst, being in the loge, while others noticed were: Mrs. Campbell Meyers, Miss Meyers, Capt. and Mrs. E. V. Frederick, Miss Falconbridge, Mr. and Mrs. R. Kingsford, Mrs. G. F. B. Doherty, Miss Beatrice Wilson, the girls from St. Margaret's College, Mrs. Perry, Miss Walsh, Miss Gwendolyn Cayley, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey of Sault Ste. Marie, Miss Florence Burns and her sister, Mrs. Goodwin Gibson of Vancouver, Miss Rachel Copeland, Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seltz, Miss Kingsford, Miss Nichol, Miss Marie Tripp, Mrs. T. Moberly, Mr. and Mrs. Ireland, Miss Macpherson and some of the Glen Mawr girls, Mrs. Philp of Picton, Mr. and Mrs. Boris Farmer, Miss Bauchope, Miss Fltz-Gibbon, Mrs. Gordon Jennings, Mr. Viggo Kihl, Mr. John Russell, Mr. Bernard Preston and Pte. Clement Hambourg. After the concert, in which Mr. Jan Hambourg had played with the master, and to which Mr. Beryl Rubenstein had contributed two piano numbers, a few musical people went up to supper with M. Ysaye at Madame Hambourg's.
