

SAFE ELECTRIC WIRING

The Globe (1844-1936); Sep 25, 1918; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 7

SAFE ELECTRIC WIRING.

George J. Beattie, "The Electric Shop."
Main 121. 72 Victoria Street.

CITY FREE FROM INFLUENZA.

According to officials of the Department of Health, the city is not only free from Spanish Influenza, but there is also very little of the common variety. Department medical men have been keeping a sharp lookout for any traces of the disease.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.