

TO NURSE BOSTONIANS: FOUR WOODSTOCK ... GO TO FIGHT SPANISH

Special Despatch to The Globe

The Globe (1844-1936); Sep 30, 1918; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 3

TO NURSE BOSTONIANS.

Four Woodstock Graduates Go to Fight Spanish Influenza.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Woodstock, Sept. 29. — In response to an appeal from Headquarters in Toronto for trained nurses from this city to assist the Massachusetts authorities in combating the Spanish influenza epidemic in that State, four local graduates of the Woodstock Hospital left yesterday for Boston: Misses Burns, Helen McDonald, Anne Hill and Jennie Calvert.