

GREAT SWIMMER DIES OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

HARRY ELIONSKY, WHO ONCE SWAM NINETY MILES, IS LATEST VICTIM.

New York, Oct. 15. Harry Elionsky, the strongest swimmer in America, is dead from Spanish influenza. He was a member of the Pelham Bay Naval Station, and once swam ninety miles without a stop. One of his favorite performances was to swim from the Battery to Coney Island, New York, with hands and feet manacled. Several times he towed a rowboat, loaded with passengers, several miles while his hands and feet were tied.

ORANGEVILLE FAILS TO REGAIN TROPHY

Guelph Rink, Skipped by R.
 H. Brydon, Defeats Challengers by Large Score

Guelph, Oct. 15.—Orangeville made an unsuccessful attempt this afternoon to regain the Bowman Trophy, which they lost to Guelph last week. The local rink experienced little difficulty in winning by the score of 29 to 15.

R. H. Brydon skipped the Guelph rink and secured such a commanding lead in the first seven ends that it was impossible to catch him and he finished the match with a seven-end. It is not expected that many more games will be played for the cup this season. The rinks and scores were as follows:—

Guelph.	Orangeville.
Geo. E. Day,	C. R. McKeown,
J. Johnston,	G. Morrison,
H. Westoby,	W. C. Hopkins,
R. H. Brydon, sk., 20	R. H. Robinson, s. 15

The score of ends:—
 Guelph 6331133001031001207—29
 Orangeville 100000022310100110030—15

Cunningham and Samuel Win Kew Beach Doubles

The Kew Beach Club doubles were won by John Cunningham and Slim Samuel after an all-day game, this team having won five straight games, defeating E. Forbes and H. Henderson in the finals. In the club singles contest G. H. Atherton captured first honors, A. M. Niblock being second.