PRO. LACROSSE TEAMS IN COAST TOURNAMENT

MAITLANDS, OTTAWA AND VAN- COUVER SUGGESTED AS COM- PETITORS BY CON. JONES.

Con Jones, the Western lacrosse enthusiast, is in the city and has offered to take the Maitlands to the Pacific coast for a lacrosse carnival next spring, providing suitable arrangements as to terms can be made with the C. L. A. champions.

Mr. Jones is also negotiating with the Ottawa team, champions of the Eastern series, and it is possible that Vancouver, Toronto and Ottawa will be represented in the tournament on the coast in May.

Shamrock Player Dies From Spanish Influenza

George Quinn, a member of the Shamrock Lacrosse Club, both intermediate and senior, passed away yesterday from the Spanish influenza.

George played defence and also was the goalkeeper for a season in the senior team. The deceased died a few hours after his wife and child's death. The funeral was held this afternoon from his father's residence, 160A St. Antoine street, Montreal.
