

LAD GIVES HIS LIFE SERVING IN HOSPITAL

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Brantford, Oct. 30.—Russell Sweet, the seventeen-year-old son of Major Edmond Sweet of the staff of the Canadian High Commissioner's office, London, England, died here to-day, a victim of Spanish influenza. The lad had been acting as an orderly in the Emergency Hospital, and it is believed that while doing this duty he contracted the disease.

His father, Major Sweet, was formerly second in command of the 215th (Brant) Battalion, and a member of the legal firm of Harley & Sweet of this city. Major and Mrs. Sweet and a sister, Mrs. Duff Slemm, are at present in England. The three surviving members of the family at home are Lieut. George Sweet and two sisters, Edith and Katherine.

Soldiers of Holland Mutiny Over Food

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Amsterdam, Oct. 30.—Dutch soldiers encamped at Hartkamp, near Apeldoorn, in Gelderland, mutinied last night, according to The Telegraaf. The trouble was due to dissatisfaction over food conditions.

The soldiers are said to have plundered the canteens and set fire to the barracks. The reports say that in the ensuing fight several men were killed or wounded, but there is no confirmation of this. It is added that order has been restored.
