BRITAIN CARRIED MOST

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Washington, Oct. 6.—Despite the epidemic of Spanish Influenza, embarkation of American troops is being continued at the rate of more than 250,000 per month. General March, United States Chief of Staff, announced yesterday, the total embarked to date now having passed the 1,850,000 mark. The September shipments exceeded 250,000, although cases of influenza in camps at home exceeded 100,000.

British Bore 70 Per cent.

London, Oct. 6.—Of the more than 1,800,000 American soldiers transported to Europe to the end of September, nearly 1,000,000 were carried in British or British-controlled ships. American vessels carried 786,000, and the remainder were brought across the Atlantic on French and Italian ships.

To insure the safety of this enormous force has entailed a tremendous amount of work for the allied fleet. The British navy has done 70 per cent. of the conveying, the American fleet 27 per cent., and the French fleet three per cent.

During September 311,219 American troops, 4,000 United States blue-jackets and 5,000 Canadian troops were brought across the Atlantic. American vessels brought 121,547, or 39 per cent. of the total of American troops. British and British-controlled ships were responsible for 57 per cent., or 175,721, while French vessels transported 13,951, or four per cent. of the total.
