

Spanish influenza, died suddenly this afternoon.

Accused of stealing a demijohn containing ten gallons of whiskey, which was part of the load of household effects he was taking to Toronto from this city, Harvey Richie, 54 Park street north, a driver, was arrested this morning on two charges, one of theft preferred by Roland Hill, and an O.T.A. charge preferred by Inspector Sturdy. The police are looking for Richie's two companions.

Four police officers from the west end division and one from the east are off duty on account of the "flu." The sick men are Sergt. Clark, Constables Hughes, Coburn, W. Smith and Harry Smythe, whose case is said to have developed into pneumonia.
