

TORONTO.

Ex-Ald. E. W. Barton died in his 73rd year.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will visit Toronto next Monday.

Faculty of Medicine examination results were announced.

J. A. Ellis, ex-M.P.P. for Ottawa, is slated for an appointment to the Ontario Railway Board.

The Canadian War Trade Board has lifted the embargo on certain commodities, permitting them to be imported from Britain.

Americans in Toronto took steps to form an organization to look after their interests in Canada, particularly in regard to Washington legislation.

THE DOMINION.

Five deaths from Spanish Influenza have taken place so far in the Polish camp at Niagara.

The Canadian War Trade Board has lifted the ban on importation of certain commodities from Great Britain.

John A. Calder, Liberal nominee for the North Oxford vacancy in the Legislature, was elected by acclamation.

The Canada Food Board has adopted the allied war loaf, and requires the use of 20 per cent. substitutes with wheat flour.

All grain dealers in Canada must have licenses from the Board of Grain Commissioners, and not only those from Fort William west, as hitherto.

The Government will formally protest against and refuse to recognize the validity of the Long Sault weir decision of the International Waterways Commission.

At the newsprint inquiry resumed before Commissioner Pringle at Ottawa there were strong indications of a rise in prices after Oct. 1; a new order will be then made, retroactive to July 1.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Constantinople has again been bombed by a British air force.

The new U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain has not yet taken over the London Embassy.

The Zionist Council of Greater New York has announced a demonstration at Carnegie Hall next Sunday night to celebrate the liberation of Palestine by the British forces.

The allies under Japanese leadership have put the Bolsheviks and Germans out of business in the Omar province of Siberia. Two thousand Austro-Germans were taken prisoner.