

"Paddy" Carroll Dies of Spanish Influenza

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Patrick J. "Paddy" Carroll, an old-time manager of boxers, died at his home here to-day of pneumonia, following an attack of Spanish influenza. He was fifty-nine years old. Carroll fought as a heavyweight before he became a manager and promoter. In his youth he was a jockey, and later driver on the grand circuit.

Jack Wolfe Was Given Decision Over Loadman

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Cleveland, Oct. 7.—Jack Wolfe of Cleveland was given the newspaper decision over Dick Loadman of Lockport, N.Y., to-night in a ten-round bout, the main event of the first boxing show of the season here. The men are bantam weights.

HAD NO PAPERS.

In the Police Court yesterday twenty-eight of the forty-three foreigners taken Sunday in the military police raids, were fined $50 and costs of $3 for going about without their military papers. The fifteen others promised to pay their fine later on.