Beavers Protest Secord Rovers—Oakley Suspended for Hitting Opponent

The T. & D. directors met in the Sons of England Hall last night, when the principal business transacted was the hearing of the protest lodged by the Beaver football club against Secord Rovers, on the grounds that the latter played an ineligible player. The offence was admitted and the game and points awarded to Beavers.

H. Oakley of Willys-Overland was suspended for one week for hitting an opponent. The fact that this player had been out of the game for two weeks, and his previous good record, were taken into consideration.

A team representing the T. & D. Football Association journeyed to St. Catharines on the holiday to play the St. Kitts' team. After a keen game the honors were even, both teams scoring twice. The teams were afterwards entertained by the St. Catharines Football Association.

The T. & D. Football Association will be represented at the funeral of Quartermaster-Sergeant Thompson, who until recently played with the R.C.D. soccer team. The funeral will take place from his late residence, and will be accorded full military honors.
