

LONDON PRECAUTIONS

The Globe (1844-1936); Oct 15, 1918; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 2

LONDON PRECAUTIONS.

London, Ont., Oct. 14.—Theatres, dance halls, churches, schools and all other places of meeting will be ordered closed to-morrow in an attempt to prevent the spread of Spanish influenza, it was decided at a special meeting of the Board of Health to-day. Overcrowding of street cars comes under the ban. All nurses in the city who are available to be called have been requested to register with the board.

WINTER OVERCOATS AGAIN.

You really should see the warm, comfy overcoat made to measure for $35.00 at 132 Yonge street. Best value possible to offer. Made in 24 hours if needed. Follett, Civil and Military Tailor, 132 Yonge street.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.