

ONTARIO ITEMS

Angus Andrews, a mail clerk, on the G.T.R. from Belleville to Peterboro', died suddenly at his home in Belleville yesterday morning. Yesterday afternoon he was apparently in good health when he returned to Belleville after making the trip to Peterboro'. He was sixty-seven years of age, and a native of Scotland.

Ed. C. Efner, Manager of the Princess Winter Garden and Springbank Dancing Pavillon at London, died yesterday. He was formerly connected with Canadian theatres as a manager of houses in Hamilton and Ottawa, and was a prominent member of Typographical Union No. 133.

Mrs. Rebekah Elson, widow of Peter Elson, M.P., died from Spanish influenza at her home in London township yesterday. She was in her seventieth year.

Clifford and Ethel Willis of Erleau were yesterday found guilty of beating a four-year-old lad who was in their care. They paid fines and costs of $66.25 in the County Police Court at Chatham. The father of the lad lives in St. Thomas, where he works on the railroad, and he has taken the boy home with him.

Graham Symington, one of the best known citizens of St. Thomas, passed away to-day, aged fifty-two years, after a lingering illness. He entered the service of the M. C. R. at the age of nineteen, and had been a locomotive engineer for thirty years. He was a prominent member of St. David's Lodge No. 302, A. F. & A. M.; Rathbone Lodge, No. 12 Knights of Pythias, and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.