

TWO DEATHS IN A MOUNT ALBERT HOME

Brother and Sister Are Taken by Grippe Within a Few Hours

Mount Albert seems to be the hardest hit of any place in the county by the epidemic. Six deaths have occurred since Friday, and there are many very serious cases. Miss Hazel Oldham, aged 22, and her brother, Forest Oldham, aged 24, died yesterday within a few hours of each other. There were seven children in the family, and all, including the parents, have been laid up with the disease. Two of the younger children are still seriously ill.

Dr. Charles Noble of Sutton was last night reported to be very seriously ill. Dr. McKay of Unionville, whose recovery at one time was feared for, is reported to be on the mend.

500 CARS OF COAL DELIVERED AT MIMICO

Fuel Situation in Good Shape Regarding Trans- portation Say Officials

Five hundred cars of coal of all varieties were delivered yesterday at the Mimico terminals, a record for a week-day. Local railway officials state that the coal situation, so far as the railways are concerned, was never better. All coal was being transported just as soon as handed over to the Canadian railways at the border terminals.

Alexander P. Wilson is Taken by Epidemic

After an illness of one week, Mr. Alexander P. Wilson, son of Mr. H. C. Wilson, 25 Gifford street, died yesterday morning in the private pavilion of the General Hospital from pneumonia, resulting from Spanish influenza.

The late Mr. Wilson was just 29 years of age, and leaves behind him a widow and four-year-old daughter. He was educated in the Toronto Technical School, afterwards entering business with his father. He was a member of All Saints' Church, took a keen interest in athletics, and was a member of the All Saints' basketball team.

Father and Child Die From Pneumonia

Shortly after the death of his five-year-old daughter, Marion, Orville R. Skilling, a produce merchant of this city, succumbed to pneumonia, following an attack of influenza, the malady that took away his daughter's life. Mr. Skilling had been ill only a week. He was 35 years of age, and is survived by his wife, at 311 Jones avenue.
