

REMANDED TO MONDAY.

Five Ogden Shops Workers Accused of Violating Lemieux Act.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Calgary, Oct. 19.—When the cases of the five Ogden Shops workers, accused of violation of the Industrial Disputes Act, were called in Police Court, their counsel asked for a remand until Monday, which was granted. A crowd of 300 Labor men gathered to witness the proceedings, but because of the order forbidding the congregation of more than ten persons on account of the Spanish influenza epidemic, they were not admitted to the courtroom.

DECORATES LILLE STATUE.

Paris, Oct. 20.—The Earl of Derby, the British Ambassador, in the name of Great Britain, has placed a laurel wreath on the Lille statue in the Place de la Concorde, commemorating the liberation of Lille by the British troops. The wreath was decorated with the colors of France and Great Britain and bore the inscription: "Homage to the Valiant Martyr City of Lille."
