

MARSHAL JOFFRE BETTER.

The Globe (1844-1936); Oct 10, 1918; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 11

MARSHAL JOFFRE BETTER.

Paris, Oct. 9. — Marshal Joffre's attack of grippe, which caused him to delay his visit to London, is mild in character. The Marshal will be able to be out to-day or to-morrow.

TROOPS TO HAMILTON.

Niagara Camp, Oct. 9. — The railway troops left camp this afternoon for Hamilton, where they will go into winter quarters. The First Battalion, 2nd Central Ontario Regiment, which is also going to Hamilton for the winter, will not move out of the camp till next week, about the time the remainder of the camp is leaving for Toronto. The units going to Toronto are: First Battalion, 1st C. O. R., Machine-gun Corps and Army Medical Corps.