

some of the dead man's effects were found among his belongings.

THE DOMINION.

Ideal crop weather prevails over the West.

First drafts of stations were issued by the Montreal and Hamilton Methodist Conferences.

The Navy League of Canada is out to get 25,000 members in Quebec in four days next month.

A British steamer brought from an English port 900 civilians and 100 officers, N.C.O.'s and men of the C. E. F. to Canada.

A. W. Bennett, K.C., has been appointed County Judge for Kent and Westmoreland, N.B., succeeding the late Judge R. A. Borden.

The Pere Marquette Railway and its maintenance of way employees have come to an agreement over wages, conditions of work, promotions, etc.

The Niagara Synod, meeting at Hamilton, raised the minimum stipend to $1,000, to increase $100 for the next two years, and endorsed war-time prohibition.

The Canadian Salvage Department, according to a report received by Major-General Mewburn, saved the Canadian public during the nine months ending with February last $211,055.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Report of another plot by Germans to destroy the Tampo oil wells has reached Washington.

Sir Henry Wood, in cable despatch to The Globe states, has declined the offer of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

120,000 victims of the grippelike epidemic raging in Spain are ill in Madrid. It is said that the disease was introduced by crews of interned U-boats.

TORONTO.

The Salvation Army Hostel for Soldiers was opened.

The rush for marriage and birth certificates at the Parliament Buildings is assuming major proportions, due to the proximity of June 1.

Lieut. T. H. Heintzman, son of Mrs. H. Heintzman of 462 Avenue Road, was killed yesterday morning in an accident near Deseronto aviation camp.

Hassen Hassanby, an Albanian, was arrested last night charged with the murder of George Tucker at Weston, and