

"EDDIE" MARTIN VICTIM OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

WELL-KNOWN BOSTON BASE- BALL WRITER DIES DAY AF- TER WIFE SUCCEUMBS.

Boston, Oct. 3.--Spanish influenza and pneumonia claimed 191 lives in this city during the 24 hours ending at 10 o'clock to-night. There were 175 victims yesterday and 202 the day before. Twenty-five persons died of pneumonia as against 40 yesterday, but the death toll from influenza, 168 to-day, was higher than yesterday by 31.

Among those who died from influenza to-day was Edward F. Martin, baseball writer of The Boston Globe and Secretary of the Boston Chapter Baseball Writers' Association of America. Martin was the American League official scorer in the last World's Series. His wife died yesterday from the same disease.

Artillery Team Has Won Sixteen of Eighteen Games

Hillierests, champions of Toronto, meet the 69th Toronto Battery of Petawawa at Broadview Field, Saturday afternoon in the third round of the O.B.A.A. series. It is a "sudden death" game, and it means much to both teams, as the winners enter the finals, meeting either Brantford or Kitchener. The 69th have won sixteen games out of eighteen, and when they tackle Hillierests they bump into the best aggregation they have met in many a day.

THIS MEANS THE CUP.

It's even money and take your choice in to-morrow's game at Scarborough Beach between the Athenaeums and Wellingtons. Each team has won a game in the Mack Cup patriotic series, and in point of ability it is a toss-up. During the season each team scored a victory over the other in extra innings. Both teams will be at full strength, and a large crowd should be on hand to see these old rivals tussle for supremacy. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

HAMILTON HEARS THINGS.

Hamilton Herald :--Information has reached Hamilton that Pitcher Alex. Johnson has played professional ball, but the H. A. B. A. does not intend to worry over the matter at all. It's a case for the O. B. A. A. to ferret out.
