

GNR. H. C. McCANN'S DEATH

The Globe (1844-1936); Oct 22, 1918; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 14

GNR. H. C. McCANN'S DEATH.

London, Ont., Oct. 21.—(Special.)
—The remains of Gunner Harold C. McCann, son of Mr. B. C. McCann, 422 Central avenue, this city, who died in New Westminster, B.C., from Spanish influenza, arrived in this city to-day. The funeral, with full military honors, will be held to-morrow. Before entering military service he was teller at the local branch of the Bank of Montreal. Lieut. Cecil McCann, a brother, has been a prisoner in Germany for some months.