

Jack Hughes of Ypres Has Burden of Sorrow

Winnipeg, Oct. 18.—Hundreds of friends of Jack Hughes, well-known Winnipeg hockeyist, who performed so brilliantly for Ypres in Allan Cup contests at Toronto last March, will sympathize with him in the loss of his mother and younger brother, Richard, who have expired from Spanish influenza. Hughes is reported to be suffering from the disease in the hospital at Moose Jaw. His sister, Winnifred Hughes, is also down with the malady.

Veteran Jack Marshall Loses His Young Son

Montreal, Oct. 18.—Robert C. Marshall, the twelve-year-old son of Jack Marshall, the veteran hockey player and coach, died at his father's home, 27 Prospect street, yesterday, of pneumonia.

"Bobby" Marshall, as he was known among his schoolmates, was a promising junior athlete. He participated in the games of Queen's School and was the centre scrimmage of the football team.
