

W.O.T.U. MEETINGS POSTPONED

The Globe (1844-1936); Oct 9, 1918; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 8

W.O.T.U. MEETINGS POSTPONED.

New York, Oct. 8.—Four Woman's Christian Temperance Union State Conventions in the east have been postponed indefinitely because of the Spanish influenza epidemic, it was announced here to-day by Mrs. Ella A. Boole, Vice-President of the W. C.T.U., and President of the New York State organization. The four conventions were to have been held at Binghamton, N.Y., October 10 to 15; Leominster, Mass., October 15 to 17; Laconia, N.H., October 7 to 9, and Rockland, Me., October 11 to 13.