

Few New "Flu" Cases at Niagara Camp

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Niagara Camp, Oct. 10.—The situation with reference to the Spanish influenza in both the Canadian and Polish camps to-day was little changed from that of yesterday, but there were a few more cases in each camp. No deaths have occurred in the past two days, however.

Major Greenway, A.D.M.S., Canadian camp, said to-day that it was probable the epidemic would run its usual course, about six weeks. In the meantime the quarantine remains as effective as possible, and many soldiers, including bandmen, are segregated and under observation, and the instant influenza develops they are placed in hospital. There is a let up of the daily temperature parades, and no chances are being taken.

GEDDES AT ANNAPOLIS.

Washington, Oct. 10. — Sir Eric Geddes, First Lord of the British Admiralty, and members of the Admiralty Board, who are visiting this country, to-day went to Annapolis as the guests of Secretary of the Navy Daniels. Sir Eric and his party were to inspect the Naval Academy and review the midshipmen, after which they were to be the guests of Rear-Admiral Eberle, the Superintendent of the Academy, at luncheon.

DUKE AT INDIAN FEAST.

Quebec, Oct. 10. — His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire was the host yesterday afternoon of a Huron feast at Lorette, where he visited the surviving Huron Indians there. He witnessed genuine dances of the old days, heard the chants of the tribe, and was created a Chief of the tribe, being presented with a name written on a strip of birch bark.

DAYLIGHT-SAVING MEASURE.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The daylight-saving law would remain in effect until rescinded by Congress under a bill passed to-day in the Senate. The measure, which was endorsed by Chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board in the interest of fuel economy, now goes to the House. Under the present law the clocks would be turned back an hour on October 27.
