

NEW QUEEN'S BACHELORS.

Kingston, Oct. 2. — (Special.)— Among those who have received the Bachelor of Arts degree at Queen's University are: George H. Shortt, son of Dr. Adam Shortt of Ottawa, who was allowed several classes on account of military service, and H. W. Graham of Cedarville, who is now overseas with the 2nd Battalion; H. F. Archibald, Montreal; G. H. Brackenbury, Welland; A. E. Cadman, Montreal; A. C. Douglas, Southampton; C. C. Goldring, Toronto; F. Hood, Ottawa; C. R. Jarvis, Toronto; H. C. Knox, Lynden; E. Mauer, B.Sc., Montreal; D. H. McLean, Ottawa; W. A. Williams, London, and D. S. Woods, Miami, Man.

BARRED ZONE FOR ALIENS.

New York, Oct. 2. — Promulgation by President Wilson of an order establishing a new barred zone for enemy aliens, embracing Rockaway Point, all of Staten Island, and the New Jersey coast, 30 miles southward from New York, was announced here to-night. The object of the order, said Rufus W. Sprague, head of the New York Enemy Alien Bureau, is to improve protection of the port and its shipping, and to assist the authorities in guarding against possible communication between German submarines and enemy agents on shore.

HALIFAX HELPS BOSTON.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 2.—The medical profession of Halifax decided yesterday to answer the urgent call of the State of Massachusetts for medical assistance to fight the spread of Spanish influenza, accepting the offer of Dr. Lessel, Dr. Thomas and Dr. McDougall to proceed to Boston this morning. Several detachments of nurses are already doing splendid work in Boston. Governor McCall of Massachusetts has wired a letter of thanks to Lieutenant-Governor Grant from the Commonwealth.

"C. O." IS SENTENCED.

Niagara Camp, Oct. 2.—Joseph Henry Williams, a conscientious objector, who was in the 2nd Battalion, 2nd Central Ontario Regiment, was sentenced to Kingston Penitentiary for ten years. Williams formerly was a member of the Northwest Mounted Police.