

MAJOR ROBT. DILLON DIES AT OSHAWA

WAS ONE OF THE MOST FAMOUS
RIFLE SHOTS IN THE BRIT-ISH EMPIRE.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)
Oshawa, Oct. 16.—There passed away at Oshawa on Friday, October 11, one of its most highly esteemed citizens in the person of Major Robert Dillon, after an illness of more than four years. He was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1847, coming to this country with his parents at an early age, and locating in Rochester, N.Y., afterwards removing to Oshawa. He was thoroughly a military man, inheriting this from his grandfather, who fought at Waterloo. He took part in the Fenian Raids of 1866, and in the Northwest Rebellion of 1885; was Captain of the 7th Fusiliers of London, Ont., and at the time he was taken ill, in June, 1914, was Musketry Instructor of the 34th Regiment.

He was also an enthusiastic rifleman, having represented Canada on the Bisley team a number of times. In the register of the National Rifle Association, kept in England, his name is either fourth or fifth on the list of the most famous rifle shots in the British Empire. Up to a few years ago he took an active part in municipal and public affairs. He was of a genial, kindly and sympathetic nature. While an adherent of the Presbyterian Church, he was a member of the Anglican. He leaves his wife, two daughters and a son; also a sister in Chicago.
