

War Correspondent is Victim of Influenza

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Paris, Oct. 7.—Don Martin, war correspondent of The New York Herald, died this morning after being ill for two days with Spanish influenza.

---

Italians in Albania Marching on Elbasan

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Rome, Oct. 7.—The Italian official dealing with the operations in Albania says:

"In Albania we are continuing to march toward the lower Skumbi, capturing prisoners. North of Berat our advanced guards have overcome the enemy rear-guards, crossed the Devol and are marching on Elbasan. Large stores of ammunition and 2,000 rifles were abandoned by the enemy at Berat."

Has Little to Say.

Vienna, Oct. 7.—"In Albania there have been further rear-guard engagements on the Skumbi," says the official communication issued this evening.